

FEDERAL RECORDS CENTERS

of the National Archives and Records Administration

cordially invite you to the bimonthly

Federal Records Center Forum

Tuesday, April 11, 2006, 9:00 AM–10:00AM

Presentation on the National Personnel Records Center

Join NARA FRC staff and your colleagues from other agencies for a presentation on the unique services available from the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) in St. Louis, MO. Learn about operational improvements, current developments with electronic Official Personnel Folders (e-OPFs), and new services under development at this facility. We encourage you to bring along any Human Resources staff responsible for retiring records to NPRC to join in this discussion.

Location

The Government Accountability Office

441 G Street, NW

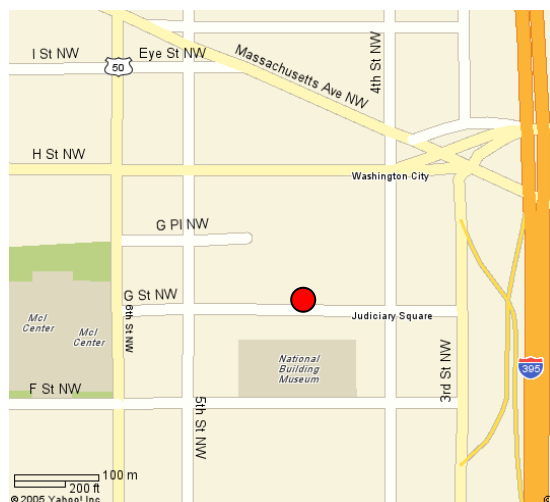

Washington DC

Accessible by metro on the RED line at Judiciary Square.

Take the exit towards the National Police Memorial.

Metro exits in front of the National Building Museum,
and the GAO is directly behind that museum

Facility is  Accessible.

Please RSVP for the event by noon on Monday, April 10, 2006. To RSVP, please send your name, agency, telephone number, and email address to Kristen Soter at (301) 837-1640 or via email at kristen.soter@nara.gov.

You may reserve places for several staff in the same email, but for security purposes we must have each attendee's name, agency, email, and telephone number.